Attention United Methodist Students!

Professor Ben Hartley wants to keep all PTS United Methodist students informed with respect to important denominational news and also regarding various opportunities to learn and be mentored. Perhaps your denominational status is already on file with the Registrar's Office. If not (or if you're not sure), please notify the Registrar's office that you are indeed a United Methodist student: semregis@eastern.edu. Thank you.

ROTH PRIZE

The Mercersburg Society announces the 2012 "Roth Prize," a financial award designed to encourage study of the history and practice of Mercersburg Theology among seminary students.

Candidates must submit a 15-20 page paper written on any topic (historical, theological, liturgical, ecumenical, contemporary expressions, etc.) pertaining to Mercersburg theology. The paper may arise from independent study or within an established seminary course.

The recipient of the prize will receive $750 and will present the paper at the Mercersburg Society Convocation in June 2013. Papers are due June 1, 2012 and should be submitted to Dr. Anne Thayer, Lancaster Theological Seminary, 555 West James Street, Lancaster, PA 17603.

Direct email inquiries to athayer@lancasterseminary.edu.
