June 3 - June 7 Monday – Friday 8:30 a.m. to 5:00 p.m.	THLE 625 The Church as Community of Compassion 3 credits • No prerequisite Dr. Adelekan This class will identify, explore, and interrogate strategies by which local faith communities enact moral and aesthetic resources to create cultures of compassion and technologies of concern. The class rests upon the assumption that compassion is a central feature of our discipleship and an inexpungeable dimension of Christian ethics. In a world in which many of our differences are settled in a theatre of violence – military, legal, economic, political, religious or domestic – how does the church serve as a healing agent, as a community of reconciliation? What does a compassionate church look like? What does a compassionate disciple look like?
June 24 – June 28 Monday – Friday 8:30 a.m. to 5:00 p.m.	PRMN612 Personal Growth and Transformation through Movies 3 credits • No prerequisite Dr. Marsha Brown Woodard

	This course introduces movies and clips from movies as a ministry tool for growth and transformation in oneself and others. Teaching and learning strategies include viewing and reflecting on selected movies, readings in transformation and group facilitation, individual and small group work, and brief classroom presentations. Each student will identify his or her primary leadership style and how it encourages transformative growth in others. The class will also investigate a variety of styles linked with transformational growth including a Midwife Leadership Style. Includes individual and small group work during and after the intensive.
Asynchronous online for the first week, and required synchronous Zoom meetings on July 11, 13, 18, & 20 from 6:30 to 9:30 p.m.	PRMN611 Coaching Skills for Today's Leaders 3 credits • No prerequisite Dr. Deborah Winters This course will equip students with basic coaching skills that can be integrated and incorporated into their ministry setting. Coach training can dramatically enhance the ministry leader's effectiveness as a leader and greatly increase the impact within their faith community and the larger local community.
